

The Rotary Club of Lake Forest Park
proudly announces
Open Nominations for the
Jeff Weissman Business Award
For Outstanding Community Service

NOMINATIONS DUE
August 10, 2017

The Rotary Club of Lake Forest Park seeks to recognize one business with a strong commitment to practicing High Ethical Standards and Public Values.

This is a community-wide award, and any person can make a nomination. All nominees who meet the following criteria will be considered:

- The nominee lives in Lake Forest Park (LFP), Shoreline, or Kenmore and
- The nominee runs a local business in one of these communities.

The Jeff Award Selection Committee will consider the following qualities as they evaluate nominees and select a winner. Nominees are:

- faithful to the ethical codes of their vocation, of the law, and the moral standards of our community;
- fair and honest in the workplace, with competitors, in advertising, with Customers and the public; and
- respectful of other vocations and individuals.

Furthermore, nominees voluntarily serve in their vocation and community, and they have earned a reputation for high ethical standards and trust among business associates and in the community, which reflects well on our community as a whole.

Please submit the attached nomination form. In your nomination, use concrete examples to clearly explain how your nominee has provided Outstanding Service Above Self to our Local Community and

- Practices truth in advertising and promotion;
- Promotes fair business practices;
- Provides a benchmark for ethical behavior;
- Takes pride in his/her work, and the work of others;
- Builds goodwill and friendship;
- Finishes what is started; and
- Keeps promises;

Nominations are due no later than August 10, 2017. Send by email to: info@lakeforestparkrotary.com or mail to: [P.O. Box 55983, Seattle, WA 98155-0983](mailto:P.O. Box 55983, Seattle, WA 98155-0983).

The Jeff Award Selection Committee will review all nominations. The winner of the award will be announced and honored at The LFP Picnic in the Park on September 9, 2017

If you need additional information or have questions, please contact George Piano at pianosr@aol.com.

*The Jeff Weissman Business Award for Outstanding Community Service is named after Jeff Weissman, Rotarian and former owner of Great Harvest Bread Company in Lake Forest Park. In business, and as a contributing member of the community, Jeff exemplifies the standards and values defined in this award process.
